For this year's HARD BARD Halloween show, GreenStage steps away from Shakespeare and into the realm of Jacobean tragedy with Thomas Middleton's The Revenger's Tragedy. One man's desire for justice over the death of his love leads he and his family into a world of corruption, disguise, and wickedness, also known as The Royal Court. This is a harrowing saga of lust, murder, politics, murder, infidelity, murder, and most importantly, REVENGE!
